

MASTER THESIS / INTERNSHIP

Wild Ungulate Ecology & Management

Field Research Area: Mammal Population Ecology

Requirements: Good skills in the use of English; basic statistics; capability to do field work in mountain areas (optional); good team work knowledge; strong commitment; interest with applied research & wildlife management; skills in bibliographic research; writing.

Topics to be discussed with the candidates

1. Evaluation of Sustainable Pyrenean chamois Rupicapra p. pyrenaica Trophy Hunt
2. Population characteristics of an expanding Iberian wild goat Capra pyrenaica population
3. A review on feral goats Capra aegagrus hircus: Biology, Pathology & Management
4. Sustainability of hunt in public hunting grounds

Teacher

Juan Herrero https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Juan_Herrero4